

BELL PRIMARY SCHOOL

PARENT CONSENT FOR PUBLICATION OF STUDENT WORK AND IMAGES

To document and promote the excellent work of Bell Primary School, photographs or digital images of your child or their school work may be selected for publication in:

- Bell News (School News Letter)
- The Bell Primary School website & Darebin Schools Network Website
- Bell PS Class and Student Blogs
- Bell PS Student Wiki's and Google Sites
- Darebin Network newsletters
- Education Times (Dept of Education & Training)
- School Annual Report and other school documentation
- Local or Daily Newspapers (including Preston Leader & Melbourne Times)
- Connect Student Magazine
- Various professional/educational journals, such as those of Melbourne Water, Vic. Assoc. of Environmental Education and Darebin Council
- Television (There will be a specific form)

Please note that:

- digital images and school work of the student published on the Bell PS or Darebin websites, Bell PS Class and Student blogs, Bell PS wikis and Bell PS Google sites can be accessed by a global audience;
- students' surnames or other information which might make students individually identifiable will not be published;
- where possible, group rather than individual photographs of students will be published, in which case, students will be identified by only a generic class group (e.g. Year 6 students) or title of activity (e.g. students planting trees);
- this permission will remain in force for the duration of a student's education at Bell Primary School;
- parents can withdraw consent to publish photographs, digital images and school work of the student at any time by notifying the school in writing;
- use of this form has been approved by the school principal.
